

BONALDO

Nikos sofa

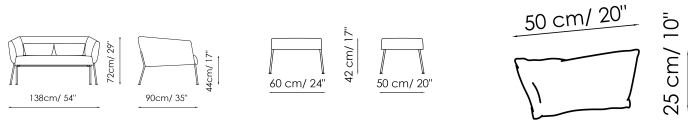

The Nikos sofa, thanks to its small size, is suitable not only for living spaces, but is perfect also for public environments and areas intended for welcoming. Cozy and comfortable, it is particularly comfortable thanks to its shapes and its two ergonomic lower back cushions in soft down padding, which support the lower back area. The Nikos sofa can be combined with the Nikos ego and Nikos low armchairs, to create coordinated environments. With fully removable covers, all Nikos models can be upholstered in fabric or leather. The painted metal base gives the group lightness, and thanks to the wide range of colours and finishes in which it is available, it enhances the body and makes it possible to create delightful combinations or audacious contrasts.
