

BONALDO

Papillon, Papillon XL

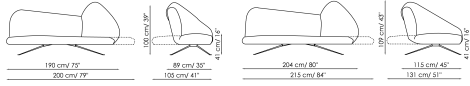

Papillon is an original, highly appealing transformable sofa, with backrests that recline into a bed surface. Made of fabric, completely removable, Papillon is lifted from the ground thanks to a large base in painted or chrome-plated metal, which ensures full stability and constitutes a detail that can give a unique style to the whole. Beautiful by day and comfortable by night, useful in domestic settings, it is also particularly suitable for contract work. Perfect for those looking for an effective solution to furnish the space in a functional way, without forgetting a touch of style and sophistication. In the Papillon XL variant, the bigger sizes favour extra comfort, while maintaining the same features of design and functionality.
